

AAW Talents of Tomorrow

Antwerp Art Weekend

18–21 May 2023

Antwerp has long been an incubator for young artists. Nestled between art centers Paris, Cologne, and London, Antwerp is a center of its own kind. One where young artists get free range, with ample space to develop their practices. Discover the work of recent graduates and students through visiting this selection of spaces, going from galleries to our renowned art schools, and discover our talents of tomorrow.
